Dear All,

We have reached December, which is both exciting and slightly scary as to how quickly the year has flown by! It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas!! The children are very excited as we are happily counting down the days to Christmas. On Tuesday, Mr Smith kindly put up the school's Christmas hoops. Please pop into the hall to check out our take on the Nativity story. If you can work out which year group did which hoop, including staff and Governors, then there is a prize for the first parent / career to give your correct answers to the office! This week, 6th December at 2:00pm and 7th December at 9:45am, we have the EYFS/KS1 nativities. There will be hot chocolate available outside the hall / church area for those who would like one whilst they wait to go into the hall. On the evening of the KS2 nativity, there will be some craft items for sale, along with drinks and nibbles served after the show at the back of the church, all proceeds go to the school.

Kind regards,

Lynn Anderson

Executive Head Teacher
